Please take note of the following for Saturday 10, Aug. 2024:

1. All children will participate in their respective classes; therefore, they must arrive at school by 8:00am to organize their exhibitions which will be open for parents and visitors after assembly at 10:00am.
2. All children are expected to stay with their teachers until the closure of the function.
3. To avoid congesting classrooms and overworking children, teachers and other selected individual that shall be identified by a KKA tag/ T- shirt will be managing parents to enter classrooms in turns.
4. All children will wear their proper uniforms (dotted, black shoes and white socks).
5. The school will provide the children of KKA with a break meal.
6. Eats and drinks will be on sale by KKA Staff for parents and visitors.
7. Unauthorized persons will not be allowed to sell anything at the function.
8. For security purposes, a parent will be required to hand-over the child to the class teachers in the morning and get a gate-pass as she/he picks the child after the function.
9. Nakasero Primary School premises will be open for parking on that day.

Please come and support your child who is one of the exhibitors of the day and please endeavor to be part of the entire programme for the good of the child.

Yours Sincerely,

Nanyanzi Lucy
Headmistress
